Excerpt: .that the articles are compounds, mixtures, or blends, and the word Imitation, Compound, or Blend, as the case may be. 3. Statements designating the quantity or proportion of the ingredients enumerated in the law, or derivatives and preparations of same,<sup>1</sup> as mentioned under Regulation 28; also statements of other extraneous substances whose presence should be declared, such as harmless coloring matter. or any necessary statement regarding grade or quality. (The statements specified in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3, should appear together without any intervening descriptive or explanatory matter.) 4. Name of manufacturer (if given). 5. Place of manufacture (if given, or when required in case of food mixtures or compounds bearing a distinctive name). It is stated in Regulation 17 that if the name of the manufacturer and place of manufacture be given they should appear upon the principal label. Although the law does not require that the name of the manufacturer be given, or the place of manufacture, except in case of food mixtures and compounds having a distinctive name, it is held that if they are given they must be true, and should be placed with the required information on the principal label. The arrangement of the label is the same for both food and drug products and an example of each is given. 1 Attention is called to the fact that the declaration of alcohol and its derivatives is not required in foods. Any descriptive or explanatory matter that may appear...
