

Nationalism in South India, Its Economic and Social Background

By Ch. M. Naidu

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1988. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xiv+216pp Research on India's freedom movement for the last two decades has undergone a dramatic change. While one school of historians has concentrated, on economic and social conditions, and the other on nationalism as a political concept, the subtle interaction between the two factors has somehow been neglected by almost all except a very few but their studies only cover macro level India as a whole. But Dr. Naidu. Keeping in mind the relative importance of this mutual mingling between factors and the absence of micro studies, breaks new ground in this work on the former Madras Presidency, for which he was awarded Ph.D. degree by the Andhra University. The book begins with an introductory chapter, analysing the meaning of nationalism, different interpretations by eminent scholars like Hans Kohn, Eric Stockes, R.P. Dutt. K.M. Panikkar and arrives at a convincing conclusion that economic and social factors have not only got direct and casual relationship with nationalism but also vice versa. Applying this theory to South India without princely states, the author treats the conditions under two heads; one dealing with economic: like agriculture, land revenue, irrigation, famine forests, salt, railways, industry,...
